

There is no place in this house with 10 square inches of flat space on which one can write a letter. There are 7 framed letters on the little slab of your desk!!

Dear Noel,

24/4/46

It will be quite all right. Mrs Morgan is expecting all three of you.
You'll find she does you very well — in fact, too well. Nothing I can say will stop her striving to do a 6 course dinner each night!

I will write to you before I leave here, or leave a letter for you, as there are a few problems, the worst being the huge heap of photo albums & the literary remains (Miss. of the poems etc). By the will, the photos ought all to go to Phil.

There are 2 tip dinner services left, lots of small parts of services. I have chosen a service for Phil (still leaving 2 & a part quantity full of everyday china.

There is also some good useful glass.

I had a talk today with Benjamin in V. Whitkin's valuet, he agreed with me that your desk is the only really decent bit of furniture. His work a lot, he takes a rather poor view of many of the other treasures.

But Ida apparently gave her cine-kodaks + her projector + her type-writer to the Edgars, so there isn't much in the accessories line.

John

I hope Helen will come down for the night on Saturday. It is the museum residue of linen + towels from that we Spent 6 hours about 1/2 hour to one should take very little furniture anyway.
