Dear Noel,

Thank you for the list. I will send this to Laurensen with the remaining jewellery when I get back from Derby, here at the end of the week.

Kelen thinks £15- is quite fair for the linen. She is by now experienced in these matters, & she says she would not ask for more.

The valuation charges we must leave to the end. I have to bear a part of them myself as one or two things were valued on our behalf.

Yours
Tom.
